

AN ABSURD ISSUE.

John Russell Young on the Cry of Negro Domination.

A DANGEROUS CAMPAIGN LIE.

This False "Force Bill" Issue Which Has Been Raised Must Be Speedily
Put Down--The Revival of Sectional and Race Prejudice by Democratic Leaders Who Know They Lie in Doing It--Their Charge
Against the Republicans a Wanton Libel.

John Russell Young in New York Press.

There is no issue in the present canvass which should give the Republican party less anxiety than this of "negro rule in the South." Some of the ablest Democratic journals, strengthened by a brutal letter from Mr. Cleveland, strive to make it the dominant question. Mr. Cleveland is to be elected to "protect the Southern states from negro rule" as a "protest against the oppressions of the South by the Republican party." This must transcend all other electoral problems, because in this "lies the welfare of these communities."

Patriotic Americans like President Harrison, statesmen who love the South, will deplore this revival of passions that once flamed into war. They realize that it is playing with fire. No matter what the electoral triumph thus obtained, it can only be a triumph big with hatreds and misfortunes.

To assume that the Republican party, either as a whole or even a respectable minority of its membership, is animated by hatred of the South, or by the hope of seeing the African race rule the white, is wanton libel. And to advance it now as against Republicans is to throw in their faces what has been done for the South by Republican leaders ever since Lincoln, "with malice toward none, with charity for all," implored the seceded states to return to the union.

CRUELITIES NEVER PRACTICED.

There were mistakes of conception and detail in the policy of reconstruction. This was inevitable. Reconstruction came as the gravest of problems. History gave us no precedent.

We could only study the reconstruction of Great Britain after the Puritan strifes; of France after the Bastille; of Germany in the making of the empire.

If we had followed the English plan there would have been confiscations and executions. The French example would have been a reign of terror. The north was confronted by the sudden collapse of a powerful, persistent and resolute military state; the destruction of deep-rooted social conditions, painful economic problems, a servile race still in the shadow of slavery.

We might have applied the torch and sword like Cromwell, or the axe like Robespierre, or dissolved commonwealths as Bismarck did when he threw the venerable crown of Hanover into a Prussian haversack. Republican policy was "malice toward none; charity for all." Barring a few weeks of spleen under President Johnson, and the attitude of the Republicans toward the south has ever been that of Lincoln—a policy of forbearance, forgiveness, peace.

But the carpetbag governments! These governments were experiments in reconstruction, well intentioned, which failed because of the Southern people themselves. Experiments which, when failure became apparent, were removed by the Republican party.

POPULAR RULE AT THE SOUTH.

If the spirit under which the military were recalled from the South and civil governments created had been accepted by the people there would have been no trouble. Intelligence could have governed then as now. The Southern soldier, however, had fought four years for the principle that the Union had no rights which a State was bound to respect, and why should he surrender this, even to accept the best of terms? It was the sullen hatred of defeat following hard upon the passionate hatred of battle.

So, disdaining his duties as a citizen, the natural leader in the community stood aloof while the adventurer came from abroad and the ruffian at home came into power. There was no raciality in the south so pronounced as that of knaves like the South Carolina Moses, who had been in the Confederate army. Active resistance was followed by passive non-resistance. It came of that desperate courage which makes one a majority, and it runs the South to-day.

Republicans resent the tyrannical features of this rule. They do not like contract labor, for instance—labor in chains. They see in it the destruction of the elementary principles of free government. Their hope is that time and moral influences will bring a better day. When we read history with honest eyes we see that the South is a monument to the unprecedented magnanimity of the Republican party. This fact should be kept ever in the front in the canvass as our answer to the cry of negro domination.

Out of the ashes and fire of the dead rebellion Republicanism lifted these commonwealths into strength and splendor. If there were gratitude in the South it would find expression in a solid electoral vote for Mr. Harrison. We do not doubt the gratitude, nor under normal conditions its expression, nor the existence of the gentlest and kindest feelings toward the North. But it is among the deplorable penalties of political action that even feelings the most sacred must be sacrificed to party.

PATRIOTISM WITHOUT PATRIOTISM.

We have the negro in politics, as represented by the solid South. We have crime in politics, as embodied in Tammany Hall. We have bedlam in politics, as shown by the money cranks, who would have governments lending money on watermelons and so on—in the West. This alliance represents what we have to fight as the Democratic party. That the Southern people should tolerate it upon so miserable a pretext as the fear of negro rule is a sad, disheartening business, and will give those who love the South and rejoice in her prosperity.

The duty of Republicans is to fight the issue, repulsive as it is, upon the lines of truth. We deprecate the negro question, the revival of a controversy dead and damned, it is not necessary, nor shrink from it as the dominant issue. Let us recall what Lincoln said and did for the South out of his infinite mercy and justice. Let us remember the attributes of Grant—his eight years of patience and effort to save the South from its follies. Let us remind the Democrats of the concessions, even to the point of surrender, of Hayes.

Let us point to the active interest of Arthur in what pertained to the South, the New Orleans fair and other matters. And to crown all, let us demonstrate that Harrison, a grandson of Virginia, in his courtesy, appreciation and affection for the South, has followed in the footsteps of his predecessors. If this is to be overlooked by our Southern friends in the necessities of the alliance with Tammany Hall and the bedlamites of the West, let that likewise be understood. In nothing is the Republican party stronger than in the true history of its dealings with the South.

The Southern people have everything to gain by accepting this with fraternity and appreciation. They have everything to lose by the campaign of calumny and sectional hatred implied in this despicable issue of "Negro Domination."

CARSKADON AT ELK GARDEN.

The Great Prohibition-Farmers' Alliance-
People's Party Man Addresses the People's Party Club at Elk Garden--His Speech an Abuse of Old Parties.

Special Correspondence to the Intelligencer

ELK GARDEN, W. VA., August 15.—The Hon. Thomas R. Carskadon, of Keyser, who poses as an unflinching advocate of the Prohibition party and was their nominee for governor four years ago, and who also advocates the principles of the Farmers Alliance, addressed the recently-formed People's party club at this place on Saturday night. It has been only a few years since Mr. Carskadon was a great Republican; was a member of the state central committee for his county, and spoke eloquently in defense of Republicanism. With a great deal of gusto he resigned from the state committee, renounced the Republican party, and allied himself with the Prohibitionists. In that party he got the prominence that he craved and made the race for governor in 1888.

Time passed, and the Farmers' Alliance sprung up, and Mr. Carskadon embraced it with open arms, and finally in this year of grace he, while still claiming to be a party Prohibitionist, is making People's party speeches. It is only fair to state that Mr. Carskadon does not work without money and without price.

As has been stated the People's party has been organized here. Henry Cook, a former Republican, is the president and C. L. Wiseman, a Democrat, is secretary. They had arranged with Mr. Carskadon for a speech in Nethkens hall on Saturday night. The meeting was called to order by John A. Nethkens, who has been a Wilson Democrat for years, in fact, ever since he left the Greenback party after he had been its candidate for house of delegates. Mr. Nethkens has a grievance against the Democratic party, which is understood to have been brought about by his party failing to reward him with an office, and so he has come over to the People's party, body and breach.

Mr. Nethkens introduced the Rev. Beiliski, of Piedmont, who prayed that more wisdom might be given unto the politicians. Mr. Nethkens in a really flowery speech then introduced "the Hon. T. R. Carskadon, of West Virginia, not simply of Keyser."

Mr. Carskadon began his speech by saying he was not there "to cry peace, peace, when there is no peace. The people are robbed in the United States to-day more than any other people on the face of the earth ever were."

HIS PERSONAL EXPLANATION.

"I want to make a personal explanation," the speaker said. "I am a party Prohibitionist. I believe in the People's party because I think it represents very nearly the same principles as the Prohibition party." Mr. Carskadon did not stop to explain that the Prohibition party declares "unmistakably in favor of prohibiting the manufacture and sale of whisky, while the People's party is as much in favor of whisky as even the Democratic party. And yet Mr. Carskadon favors the People's party because its principles are almost exactly similar to those of his party!"

After abusing the old parties, especially the Republican party, Mr. Carskadon made a lengthy reference to a speech of Mr. Elkins, which, he said, was written, or at least endorsed, by Blaine and Whitelaw Reid. He undertook to show that Mr. Elkins was not consistent, and announced his readiness to discuss the issues with that distinguished gentleman, or any one else.

"There is in Preston county," said Mr. Carskadon, "a rising young Republican (meaning Edward S. Elliott) who is posing as a great speaker for Republican principles. I say to you that I should like to meet him here in this town, old farmer as I am, and discuss with him before you the questions at issue." A Republican from Preston county who happened to be present informed Mr. C. that he would speak for Mr. Elliott, and that that gentleman would meet him.

In conclusion Mr. Carskadon said that we are almost cracking our skulls trying to make ourselves believe that we are prosperous when the facts are against us. His speech throughout was abuse of the old parties, and he failed to discuss one principle of any party to which he adheres, to advance one single idea of the remedy for the existing dangerous condition of the country. It must not be omitted that he indulged in an uncalled for attack on the ministry. There were three prominent Methodist ministers in the audience, and he made repeated reference to them, asserting that as ministers and voting the Republican ticket they were as great sinners as the saloon keepers.

Altogether his speech was one calculated to provoke disgust in the minds of sensible people, and members of the People's party admitted to your correspondent that it did their cause more harm than good.

TO PRESERVE OUR TIMBER.

Work of the West Virginia Experiment Station Upon the Insects Attacking the Forests.

Attention of the public has been directed by the authorities of the experiment station at Morgantown for more than a year, to the immense damage being done to our pine and spruce forests in West Virginia by insects. This has become so serious that it involves the preservation or destruction of property worth hundreds of thousands of dollars. All of the leading lumber companies in the state, whose addresses could be secured, have had their special attention called to the ravages of this insect and have been invited to correspond with the station authorities in regard to the extent and character of damage going on in the forests in their neighborhoods.

The result has been that several of the large lumber companies, notably the one presided over by ex-U. S. Senator J. N. Camden; the Cumberland Lumber Co. of Cumberland, Md.; the Condon-Lane Boom & Lumber Co. of Brets, W. Va., and the St. Lawrence Boom & Manufacturing Co. of Roncove, W. Va., indicate their willingness to assist financially in conducting the experiment. The West Virginia experiment station has perfected arrangements for carrying forward a large amount of work bearing directly upon the preservation of the forests of this state.

The station committee of the board of regents of the West Virginia University, at its meeting August 11, made provision for Mr. A. D. Hopkins, the entomologist of the station, to proceed at once to Europe for the purpose of making investigations in the forests of France, Switzerland, Germany and Norway concerning the methods of forest protection practiced in those countries. It is hoped thereby to discover some means by which the insect depredations in our pine and spruce forests may be checked.

The funds of the station available for entomological work were not sufficient to enable the station to carry forward such an extensive and important investigation without the additional resources which have been so generously contributed by these public spirited citizens of the state.

LABOR FEDERATION

Of Pennsylvania Advises Members Not to Join the Militia.

CHESTER, PA., August 15.—The meeting of the state Federation of Labor was held here to-day, with Charles A. Miller, of Typographical Union No. 14, of Harrisburg, presiding. After a speech of welcome by the mayor of Chester, the committee on credentials was announced. Resolutions were passed recommending that organized and unorganized workmen refrain from connecting themselves with the National Guard and that those so connected sever their connections; that the sympathy of the federation be extended to the Homestead strikers; denouncing the Carnegie company as unscrupulous tyrants in refusing to treat with locked-out employees.

A DESERTED HUSBAND

Shoots and Mortally Wounds His Wife and Her Male Companion.

BALDWIN, MICH., August 16.—Mayor J. Houck, of this place, who was deserted by his wife two years ago, last night encountered his recent spouse in company with her sister and a man named Frank Gray. The deserted husband pulled a revolver and shot his wife in the abdomen and Gray in the mouth. He then turned the weapon on his sister-in-law, but by this time the bystanders took a hand, and the desperate man was restrained. The woman's wound is fatal, but there is a possibility of Gray's recovery. Houck was taken into custody. He has been heretofore a peaceable citizen. He was employed as nightwatchman by the railroad company.

"DEATH TO TYRANTS."

Illinois Troops Burn Col. Streator and Gen. Snowden in Edgely.

CHICAGO, ILL., August 16.—As a protest against the action of Col. Streator in the Iams case at Homestead, members of the Second regiment, I. N. G., last night burned in effigy Gen. Snowden and Col. Streator. The incineration took place within a stone's throw of the armory, where the regiment was drilling. The dummies were dressed in the full uniform and bore all the insignia to which their high rank entitled them. Suspended with a cord around the neck of each of the effigies was a large white placard on which was written, "Death to all Tyrants."

A WIRE TAPPER

As Well as a Bigamist—John Green Wanted at Cincinnati.

BUFFALO, N. Y., August 16.—Handsome John Green, alias George Howard Chevalan, who up to date is accused of having married nine wives during the past two years, the last of whom was Miss Helen Trapp, of this city, is wanted in Cincinnati for wire tapping. The Western Union Telegraph Company has had detectives searching the country for Green ever since the latter part of April. They have an excellent case against him. In the middle of last April the wires leading to the Cincinnati pool rooms were tapped near Red Bank. The gang beat the pool sellers out of several thousand dollars.

Colored G. A. R.

ALBANY, N. Y., August 16.—Captain John Palmer, commander in chief of the G. A. R., said to-day that the department of Mississippi and Louisiana had been organized and the colored posts have been admitted to full membership.

Deafness Can't be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treseott are keepers of the government lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dreadful cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery, and after the use of two and a half bottles was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store.

Can chronic diarrhoea be cured? Those who think not should read the following from Mr. Joseph McGuffin of Spaulding, Union county, Iowa. He says: "I was troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea and used many kinds of medicine; but nothing with permanent effect for good, until I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I would say to every one in need of medicine for the ailments mentioned and kindred diseases try the Remedy, and like myself, you will never be without it in your home." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.
